

PUBLIC NOTICE

THE NAIROBI SECURITIES EXCHANGE IS OPEN FOR BUSINESS

Nairobi, Monday, 16 March 2020 – The Nairobi Securities Exchange (NSE) has this morning resumed normal trading following the trading halt imposed on Friday, 13 March 2020 at 2:38 p.m. The NSE 20 share benchmark Index opened at 2128.45 representing a 0.175% increase above Friday's close.

Mr. Geoffrey Odundo, the Chief Executive of NSE reassured of the Exchange's commitment to its stakeholders to continuously inform the market and to maintain stability in the market as per the set trading rules.

“The market is open and we will continue to update the public on any new developments. We are hopeful that the market will stabilize but we continue to monitor and will advise the public on any developments. I urge investors not to panic and take advantage of these unprecedented stock discounts.” He said.
